

Danielle Pillans

Currently, Danielle is a college instructor in the area of Communications/Public Speaking, and has been teaching college for 6+ years. She also volunteers at her local PMC, where she served as ED for three years.

During the time Danielle led the PMC, the center transitioned from a hidden treasure to a visible difference maker in the community.

She has a BFA (Theatre/NonProfit Management) from Baylor University and a MA (Professional Development) from Amberton University.
