Inter-Professional Team Building

Quality patient care requires teamwork. Building the ideal team in your clinical setting can take some consideration of the unique needs of the average patient, and the unique services you provide.

This course is for you if you have multiple professions, whether you're a start-up, transitioning, or existing clinic. If you're or a new ED/CEO, if you're adding new professions like RNs, an RDMS or professional counselor, this course will help you optimize your team.

Program Overview

Through this 7-hour on-site course, Sparrow Leadership will create an outline of the Inter-Professional Team Plan and provide an assessment of existing medical volunteer and staff opportunities.

Scope of Service:

- 7 hour on-site training with two consultants

Objectives:

- Participants will define an inter-professional team.
- Participants will determine the ideal inter-professional team for their setting.
